

2007 Dialogues in Democracy: Life, Liberty & the Pursuit of Happiness

Higher Education in Ohio Saturday, October 20th

Anyone interested in the future of higher education is encouraged to attend - community members, students, faculty and staff. Background information will be presented and participants will take part in small-group and plenary discussions on the value and mission of higher education in Ohio.

This national exercise in civic engagement, organized by MacNeil/Lehrer Productions' By the People, in partnership with the Colonial Williamsburg Foundation, will be taped by WBGU-PBS for local and national broadcasts, scheduled to air in January, 2008.

WBGU-PBS and Bowling Green State University are one of 11 community sites across the country to be chosen to hold "By The People 2007 Dialogues in Democracy." This project is designed to reinforce the need for civic engagement and remind citizens that the American experience is built on their shared ownership of the democratic values of the founders.

TO REGISTER: Call 419-372-7270 or email awdzur@bgsu.edu. Lunch, snacks and a $20 gift certificate will be provided.
